Fulton County Court Temporary Closing

Fulton County Administrative Judge Thomas Ewing, in consultation with Chief Judge David Vancil of the Ninth Judicial Circuit, the Fulton County Board, and the Fulton County Sheriff, announced that the Fulton County Courts are temporarily closed until Monday, August 31, 2020 because a court employee has tested positive for Covid-19. During the temporary closing, the affected areas of the Fulton County Courthouse have and will be cleaned and sanitized for the protection of court personnel and the public.
