

4.40

Definition Of Property Of Another

The term “property of another” means a building or other property, whether real or personal, in which a person other than the offender has an interest which the offender has no authority to defeat or impair, even though the offender may also have an interest in the building or property.

Committee Note

Instruction and Committee Note Approved December 1, 2017

720 ILCS 5/20-1(a) (West 2017).