

Improving Language Access Services in Illinois Courts

The Language Access Committee of the Illinois Supreme Court's Commission on Access to Justice is hosting a stakeholder meeting in Kane County to learn about challenges in providing language access to court users. We hope the meeting will chart a path forward for improvement of language access services in the county and serve as a model for the state.

YOU ARE INVITED!

We want to bring together court stakeholders and justice partners, including judges, interpreters, clerks, court administration, probation, court reporters, public defenders, state's attorneys, County Board members, community groups, and more!

Wednesday, February 19th, 2020

11:30am - 1:30pm

Kane County Judicial Center, Jury Room

37W777 IL-38, St. Charles, IL 60175

Lunch will be provided
