JUSTICE KILBRIDE TO SWEAR-IN SABOL AS RESIDENT JUDGE IN TWENTY-FIRST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

Illinois Supreme Court Justice Thomas Kilbride will swear-in Associate Judge Michael Sabol as a Resident Circuit Judge of Iroquois County in the Twenty-First Judicial Circuit on August 3, 2020. The swearing in will take place at 11:30 a.m. in Courtroom 300 of the Kankakee County Courthouse.

21st Circuit Chief Judge Michael D. Kramer and the other judges of the 21st Judicial Circuit will be in attendance.

Judge Sabol was appointed to fill the 21st Judicial Circuit vacancy created by the retirement of Judge James B. Kinzer on August 2, 2020. The appointment will conclude December 7, 2020, when the position will be filled by the November 2020 General Election. Judge Sabol is running unopposed in the general election.

Judge Sabol has served Associate Judge for the 21st Judicial Circuit, Iroquois County, since September 2016, presiding over a wide variety of cases. From 2006 to 2016, he was an Associate at Elliott & McClure, P.C., and then Godin, Denton, & Elliott, P.C., and concurrently served as Iroquois County Assistant Public Defender during this time. From 2002 to 2006, he was an Assistant State's Attorney with the Iroquois County State's Attorney's Office.

The 21st Judicial Circuit presides over the counties of Iroquois and Kankakee.
