Criminal Appeals in Illinois: An Introduction to Law and Procedure

September 21, 2020 – October 23, 2020

This new and innovative 5-week course will assist attorneys who want to participate in the Illinois Supreme Court's pro bono program. We will walk you through a criminal trial in Illinois, discussing various points of Illinois law and procedure, so that you can spot errors to raise on appeal. The course will also familiarize you with relevant Supreme Court and Appellate Court Rules, will advise you about client relations, and will teach you how to use OSAD's vast resources to efficiently research criminal law. Completion of this course will qualify you to participate in the Supreme Court's pro bono program.

This course is designed to work around your schedule. We will release videos and supplemental materials once a week for five weeks. You can review this weekly material, which should take approximately 2.25 hours, at your own convenience. We will hold office hours twice a week where anyone can call, email, or Zoom in to review and discuss that week's materials. See following page for detailed course curriculum.

To register, email probono@osad.state.il.us. Registration closes September 18th.
